Professional Learning Offer for primary schools: Supporting learners' progression in International Languages- May 2024, for free!

Tuesday 21 May 2024, 3:45 - 5:00

Link to register

An excellent opportunity for primary school practitioners to develop relevant and practical ideas for a purposeful and manageable International Languages curriculum within their setting.

The Institut français is organising a free upskilling session for primary school practitioners in Wales.

The session will explore how to support learners' progression in International Languages, what progress looks like and how to measure it. The session will focus on practical examples and resources in French but teachers of all languages can take part. The session is also open to practitioners of all levels of French and whether you are already teaching French or at planning stages. The session will be interactive, with plenty of opportunities to share ideas, ask questions and build confidence.

National Conversation in Summer 2024

PURPOSE, PEDAGOGY AND PROGRESSION

Building on the 2024 National Network Conversations on Curriculum and Progression, this National Conversation in Summer 2024 will focus on the role of pedagogy in supporting our understanding of Curriculum for Wales.

Supported by Professor Graham Donaldson, this National Conversation will provide you with the opportunity to:

- Engage in professional conversations with practitioners from across Wales; to stop, reflect and learn from each other as we continue our Curriculum for Wales journey.
- 'Talk Pedagogy, Think Learning' in a safe space. Colleagues from schools and settings will be able to engage with each other and with education partners including Estyn, school improvement services, Higher Education Institutions and the leadership academy.
- 'Talk Pedagogy, Think Leadership'. Explore how we are developing as reflective, enquiring learning organisations providing the best experiences for the learners of Wales.

Whether you are a leader, teacher or teaching assistant in a school in Wales, you will find this a valuable opportunity to share thinking, learn from others and cultivate relationships that will strengthen our shared understanding of Curriculum for Wales.
